Greetings Saints,

I'd like to share a story that comes from an old LEADERSHIP magazine. "In 1947, a professor at the University of Chicago, Dr. Chandrasekar, was scheduled to teach an advanced seminar in astrophysics. At the time he was living in Wisconsin, doing research at the Yerks astronomical observatory. He planned to commute twice a week for the class, even though it would be held during the harsh winter months.

Registration for the seminar, however, fell far below expectations. Only two students signed up for the class. People expected Dr. Chandrasekhar to cancel, lest he waste his time. But for the sake of two students, he taught the class, commuting 100 miles round trip through back country roads in the dead of winter.

His students, Chen Ning Yang and Tsung-Dao Lee, did their homework. Ten years later, in 1957, they both won the Nobel Prize for physics. So did Dr. Chandrasekhar in 1983.

For effective teachers there is no such thing as a small class."

I would add, for effective Christians there is no such thing as small ministry, whether it is public or in our homes.

God Bless you and your ministry.
Pastor Jim & Melody

Happenings

The Scripture Study and Coloring group continues to meet on Zoom every other Sabbath at 6:00 p.m. March dates are the 6th and 20th. On March 6 our scripture for study is Galatians 2:20. Zoom meeting ID is 536 690 5989, passcode is 5366905989.

Vespers continues on Zoom every Friday evening at 7:00 p.m. We are reading "Thoughts From the Mount of Blessing" and are about to start chapter 4. We are using the study guide from the EGW site. Meeting ID is 536 690 5989. Passcode is 5366905989

Praying for one another: On Sabbath, you can draw a few names to pray for from the membership of the church. You will find those names in the foyer. It may be somebody you already pray for or someone you wouldn't have thought to pray for. If you are not able to come to church and would like names to pray for, call: 541-591-8616. There is also a prayer request box in which you can place your "soul salvation prayer requests" for any relatives or acquaintances that are on your heart. Then others will draw those names and join you in prayer for those individuals. You can also find a prayer request form in this newsletter or you can call your request to the above number. You may not feel comfortable answering all the questions on the request form - just fill in what you can. The information is only to help the prayer be specific and to ignite more passion in the prayer.

School News

Greetings, Church Family,

The school remains open and healthy as of this date. We are required to abide by another Oregon Department of Education guideline: to establish our school as a test site for students appearing to have COVID symptoms. We will comply and pray for continued protection over our little campus.

There is talk that restrictive guidelines may possibly remain in place through the end of 2021. If that is the case, we will have limited space, again, for students. If you are interested in placing your child in our church school next year, be on the lookout for a pre-registration form for the 2021-2022 school year. They will be placed on the education table in the church foyer sometime in March, and also made available for pick-up at school, as well. A space will be reserved on a first-come-first-served basis. Please contact me at 541-331-3532 with any questions.

We will continue to occupy until our Jesus comes to take us Home!

Sincerely, Principal, Melody Osborne

Thought Gem

Imagine, if you will, that this scene from the New Testament really happened.

Jesus had just chosen twelve men with assorted backgrounds as His disciples. They listened to what He'd been saying and they believed Him. All were willing to leave everything and follow Him. But now Jesus adds a little something: they are to go and tell the whole world God's plan of salvation.

"Jesus," Peter asked, "you want to do that with 12 people?"

"If it seems like too many," Jesus answered, "don't worry. One of you will drop out of the group."

The disciples began to talk among themselves. "That's a lot of work for us to do," stated James.

"We could get into trouble with the authorities," added John.

Matthew spoke next. "It would take a lot of money."

"I doubt if many people would listen to us," said Thomas.

Andrew looks puzzled. "How can we cover that much territory? The automobile hasn't even been invented yet."

The others all added their comments as to why this wouldn't work. After listening to this motley group of believers, Jesus lifted His hands to quiet their voices. Then He spoke.

"I hear your concerns. Know that I have called others to follow me but they refused. They all had different excuses. That's going to happen. Understand this: I can work through many or few. Numbers aren't a problem with me. Keep working and praying and learning. I'll take care of the rest."

Men's Summit 2021

This is a personal invitation to all males to attend the Oregon Men's Summit May 21 - 23 at the Grove Christian Camp on the Row River just south of Eugene. This year our speaker will be our own Ed Lyons.

Oregon Men's Summit is held at beautiful Dorena Lake. A team of guys from all over the Oregon Conference are hard at work to make this Men's Summit fly! Activities and events in the works include: Excavating into the Bible, Knife-Throwing, Survival Skills (both spiritually and worldly), Birding, Photography, Archery, Music, Campfires. Unled activities available: Mountain Biking, Gold Mines, Hiking, Kayaking/Canoeing, Quads/Motorcycles!

Meet new friends as you converse over some of your favorite topics. There are great cabins and tasty meals! All you need is a sleeping bag and appropriate gear for the activities you want to join.

Join us for a weekend of getting back to nature (where men can be men), spiritual food and great camaradery. If you are a female and have men in your life, lovingly encourage them to attend this event and to live intentionally closer to God.

Oh, and remember... Men don't retreat, we reach for the Summit!!

PS: bring your instruments and best vocal voice and join in the music.

Watch for registration details and check out this video of the last Men's Summit!
